

DIGITAL CITIZENSHIP

Include everyone who wants to participate.

Use technology according to agreed parental/school rules.

Recognize that people have different views.

Investigate topics from all angles.

Be aware of your health and take technology breaks!

Start a blog to share information with others.

Unite against cyber bullying.

Be alert when talking to people you don't know.

Investigate how other students learn around the world.

Reach out if you read or see anything upsetting online.

Listen to others and learn from experiences.

Stay secure by keeping your personal information private.

Look out for internet scams.

Learn about the world via the internet.

Use Privacy settings on social media.

Practice proper online etiquette; be respectful of others.

Credit the author/creator if you use their work.

Log on to study, to communicate, or for leisure.

Network with experts and bring their knowledge to class.

Determine if what you read is valid.

